Dear =riends,

On November 29th, EMPATH returns to Theaterlab in NYC =or a two week run. We did three shows in April, people loved it, =hey sold out, so we're bringing it =ack.

In the play, I enact the story of how I =ent from skeptic to Empath by way of psychics, Ayahuasca and =urning Man. And I do readings with members from the =udience. This play is the result of years of exploring, risking =marrassment, listening to spirits, doubting myself, trying again and =utting it all out there.

But this may be the hardest part. I'm =ervous as I write this. I need to ask for your help to make this bigger =roduction happen. My director, Catie Davis, and I just launched a Kickstarter =ampaign. Will you check it out and, if moved, contribute =hat feels right?

People have =een asking, "Why do you do this empath stuff? What's the =oint?" On one level, I'm doing it because it's emerging through =e. It's what's =appening. But there is a bigger mission. I want to change =he whole damn culture.

I want us to value our inner lives =s much as our outer ones. I want us to prioritize personal growth and =otional wellbeing above money, status and distraction. And I want to =s to realize that magic is real.

That's what =MPATH is about.

Can you help?

Humbly =ours,
David

P.S. I also want to share beautiful edits of =eadings, several in depth podcast interviews, a series of stunning =ouble exposure photos, and shots from Burning Man all on my blog. And =ollow me on Instagram. ='ve been posting tidbits you won't get elsewhere. =o:p>
