Gary informs that Ben=99s buyer Tony Robbin's canceled his contract with Ben,,,

I received this from Ben yesterday;

Thanks for the fe=dback and kind words, much appreciated!

I checked with our team this=morning and we feel the galley mods and options your looking for including t=e fuel mitigation and cabin alt mod all together should cost right under 1,= to complete.

For an aircraft of this size and cost that's n=t a big number.

Let me know if you want more details.

T=anks !
