From Wendy,,

Morning Larry

They are doing the first flight test today. No outside personnel including Zak, is allowed on board because they did an actuator AD that must be tested.

He also said to=please be ready to move if the present deal doesn't go through. The buyer is at Comlux and hopefully all will move forward however we can't be comfortable with the deal because the buyer is flipping the aircraft to an unknown party so we can't ascertain how serious they are.
