
From: Madars Virza <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Monday, October 1, 2018 10:48 PM
To: jeffrey E.
Subject: Priest-penitent privilege

Turns out this is highly locale-specific:

-
ht=ps://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Priest%20%93penitent_privilege#Clergy%20%3penitent_privilege_and_mandated_reporting
<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Priest%20%93penitent_privilege#Clergy%20%93penitent_privilege_and_mandated_reporting>

- <https://www.childwelfare.gov/pubPDFs/clergymandated.pdf>

But even in recent times priests have chosen death rather than violating the seal of confessional, whereas government simply has chosen to surveil the confessionals. This seems like a good historic overview:

<http://www.ncregister.com/blog/fatherlandry/your-priest-is-ready-to-die-for-you-to-protect-the-seal-of-confession</>>
<<http://www.ncregister.com/blog/fatherlandry/your-priest-is-ready-to-die-for-you-to-protect-the-seal-of-confession>>

Saint Mateo Correa Magallanes -- pray for u=!

Madars