Car was shipped from Germany today and should arrive to Paris on October 2nd. After it arrives it will take 48 hours to exchange the antenna to the color that Jeffrey requested. Car comes from the factory in black wood, but not the one that JE saw. Michael received today the chassis number and inquired information how long it will take to replace wood to brown.

Thank you,
Bella

We don't know exactly, everything depends of the transport.

We need also 1 or 2 days to paint the radio antenna

I will be able to give you a definitive date after production.
