Jeff,

Good morning and apologize for my delay. I am flattered with the opportunity and thank you for considering me, but I am fully vested at moment with some pretty large P3 pursuits I want to achieve in closing. As we discussed and I realized I didn't answer very well, my specialty today is just that. I am very accomplished in bringing teams together on projects (including financing) to accomplish goals such as Disney and even Grand Cayman at the moment with the new Cruise Pier. I would really like the opportunity to do that for you thru Orion if that is interest. I can bring a couple of key team members together and visit the island when you have time.

Thank you again Jeff, and I really appreciated your time last week and look forward to hearing from you soon.
