Here is ABOR 201. regs, which I just read again in =etail.

1. =nbsp;good news is that it looks like no matter what happens at =onciliation that I will continue to be paid on leave through the entire =rocess, which could stretch perhaps 2-3 months beyond =hat..

2. =nbsp;conciliation process looks like they are supposed to try and find = resolution, so they can make suggestions, according to ABOR regs.. =nbsp;

3. =o, I just heard that Uni will pay for my travel.. (available dates are =ept 26-28 as I was told a few days ago). So I am going to travel =wice to Phoenix.. I think it is worthwhile meeting with the =ommittee first, on the 26th. to present my suggestions, but also to =ncourage them to press the Dean to come up with a resolution beyond =imple dismissal. Then I will come back on the 28th to meet with =hem and the Dean..

4. I just read the regulations regarding being put on =eave with pay, and the University violated my rights by announcing it =o the world the day they let me know about it, without informing me of =he right to appeal..

5. I don't need Justin at all for conciliation =rocess.. and I will tell him so tomorrow when we discuss various =pects of the bill that I am disputing..

6. I am going to get him to spend 30 =in coming up with a bullet form list of violations of due process, free =peech, academic freedom, gender bias etc, thus far, that might form the =asis of a later lawsuit, so I can bring my next lawyer up to speed when =hat occurs..
