I'm going to start asking around to all=the Plant neurobiologist and see if anyone will do this w me.

If I can find someone to do the stains to classify the very basics would

Have no idea on cost but couldn't be too much.

Would also love to do a PET scan on a live plant. Either a DOPA pet or an F=G One Whatcha think?

Am in Salt Lake City at Stryker for their Master Course on thrombectomy
