Subject: Fwd: can you book me flights to come to phoenix sept 27 or 28?

I =ant to reply to this Dean prick.. with the following, but I =robably won't.. note he sent a copy to the provost and =niversity attorney.

Patrick, given that you informed me that paid leave was not a =isciplinary action, and that I could come on campus and not be hindered =rom other things that relate to my own work as a result of the =dministrative leave that was arbitrarily imposed, I don't =nderstand how withholding funds that support my own work is not =unitive, and does not violate the claim that the leave is not =unitive.

As for Jessica, my contract provides me an executive =ssistant to support my own work. The letter from the Provost =ndicated my Origins appointment and my Foundation professorship, which =ere to be renewed every 5 years, were not being renewed. There is =o such deadline for the executive assistant that was contractually =rovided to me in my offer letter, so I will continue to use Jessica =hen I need her, unless the college provides me with someone else. =nbsp; I understand that with me being on leave that Jessica's =ime was not being filled, so I am glad she is assisting with Beyond, =ut I will assume she will continue to assist me as needed as per my =ffer contract with the University.

Lawrence, given you are on =aid administrative leave with no ASU responsibilities, the research =ccounts are not available.

Also, please send me any requests or questions directly as Jessica S is now assigned to the Beyond Center.

Thanks, =at

OK, thanks.

Lawrence is also wondering if he can have access to his ASU accounts for other research related costs.

Thanks,
Jessica

Hi =essica, yes, Professor Kruass can use funds allocated to him to pay his =travel to ASU from Portland and return.

I know you are no longer =ssigned to Professor Krauss; however, I am guessing he is not familiar =ith the various changes in the travel system at ASU. So, please =ssist him with the booking and payment for flights.

Thanks, Pat
