This is a good strategy.. I want to get salary, plus my lawyers fees as part of this.. and I want to be able to retire rather than be fired.. I have drawn up some options.. will send you sometime soon.

Conciliation- I suggest your position is simple. No need for a long battle- we can agree that the university does not have legal grounds for dismissal of a tenured professor. However they do not want me there. I am willing to listen to a fair proposal to leave ok. I didn't expect yes.. at least some fair reaction of this work was worthwhile in preparing the appeal letter. I am going to cut him loose after conciliation.. He is a lawyer of record for that process, as you can see. But I am going to do my own preparation for the meeting.. Can't afford any more of him at this time.
