You=are confused.. The Australia thing has nothing to do with the =ppeal strategy, which is clear and based on the appeal letter and the =wo memos. The appeal strategy has not changed.. The document =rovides overwhelming evidence that most of the alleged infractions did =ot occur, and that the others do not constitute offenses worthy of =ismissal. I have done what I can do there, and have left it =side until the conciliation committee is established and I learn what =s required of me there.. when I will focus on it again as my primary =ocus. It has been my primary focus for the past month, and I believe =he documents we produced are overwhelmingly strong in external =evidence.. In the meantime, the only other thing I was planning to =o re the case was draft an inquiry letter to Australian solicitors, as =er your recommendation last week, to see whether a defamation suit =here against Melanie Thomson would fly. That was my task for an =our this morning. And then I will move on to preparing a talk fo =exico next week.

read the fucking email. I am not asking for that.. I am =sking that we see what solicitors there think, and not just take =lison's word. Dammit, you were the one =hat suggested this in the first place last week, which is why the =nquiry letter was on my to-do list. Inquiries don't=hurt, do they?
