Thank you for this, Jeffrey. No=hing surprises me with you anymore.

I agree with your observation that a =ilitary death is no less valuable than a civilian one. You also seemed to =ave a fatalistic view about conflict in the Gulf. When you put these two views alongside each other, I worry that one might =onclude that we should accept civilian casualties in parts of the world wh=ere we seem to accept military casualties. That I do not agree with.=C2 Civilians do not choose to place themselves in harm's way.

Let's reconnect before UNGA.=C2 Until then, be well...
