Hi Rich & Daph,

I got back to GSJ at 12:45pm.

I =sked Tap why is the generator so loud? if it's new? He went to =heck it for me and said it doesn't have any oil in it.

I asked him to please put oil in it. Tap said =hat he have to shut it down right now. This is Bad

One of Elderfield workers said that the carpenter on the =each (Brian) is the one that checks on it during the day
