The story is about Dr. Kim, of =ourse, and his tenure at WBG. I've spoken to more than a dozen peo=le who worked closely with JYK. Your name has come up in many of those con=versations.

Does i= mean that you are a "major" part of the story? It does no=, though I hesitate to offer that assurance for the very simple reason tha= there is no settled definition of "major."

Is your name currently in the article= It is, but as I've said before, we think very deeply about journa=istic ethics. That is only to say that we don't print everything w= hear, nor print things we judge to be rumor or malicious innuendo.

I think the above makes our ne=ed to have a conversation more urgent. One suggestion is that, if we do del=y the call, we do it so that my editor Sharon Weinberger is present. I tru=t her completely and believe that she can help us approach this in the mos= responsible and productive way possible.

Alexander thank you for your email.

I assume that I am not a major part of your story and that my name or any=specifics about me will not be used in this story — you may b= aware I mentor young women.

If my assumption is incorrect th=n we will need to delay our call tonight.

Thank you for =etting back to me.

In short, the answer is yes,=we can absolutely speak off the record.

Don't worry about recording. I can run a recorder on my end. But if y=u want to record for your own use, then by all means.

Apologies for the delay in responding, I am=at the hospital on call.

=f you can confirm an off the record conversation, I will call you this eve=ing at 7:30pm PST at (

My call will come from one of our hospit=l lines, [REDACTED] and if you would like me to set up a recorded line=send word and I can arrange that as well.
