- * Monday (Jan 21) - LSJE re=ognized federal holiday (MLK) - no workers
- * Some crew pul=ed for GSJ road priority, slowed projects here but still accomplished quite a bit and I believe road =project is complete.
- * Mike was on vacation this week. Will be back Monday.
- * Many thanks to Una and Da=hne in flexibility w me on payment requests and crew payroll. Alerted by S=iley that Premium is almost out. This could be the reason the Premium pump=is taking a while to begin pumping. Need to order first thing Monday.♦=A0
- * Daphne will assist w water order to GSJ (thank you)
- * Mike to coordinate trash removal first thing this coming week as well.=C2♦
- * New cell and two iPads received (thank you).
</=i>
- * Please call or text to alert to time-sensitive email as working from=phone in field challenging esp when inbox filled w Cashkim photos and dial=gue. Will filter to different folder and check periodically as I value thi= and do not want to miss anything. WhatsApp (Karyna uses this also) would =work well for this kind of dialogue.
- * Copying other division/p=object leads so can add information I might have missed.
- * =lease note new work cell number: 340.514.4446.
- * Striving =o complete proposal for LSJE policy, re: staff/crew.

<=>Observations, Re: Operations

- * Mission. As I unders=and it, all our positions exist to enable the principal to come home to a =pace that exists exactly as he envisions it to be. He doesn't care abo=t process, only end results. Every project must be prioritized toward this=outcome so he can have peace and quiet so he can think.
 - * "O=ganizational Drag." This is the common dynamic among compani=s where systems of operation hinder the company's top performers' =productivity. These areas need to be identified and addressed.
 - * G=als. Need to develop measures of effectiveness (goals) for all employe=s and periodic review of goals met. This will help press us toward the mis=ion and the principal will be able to see quantitative and qualitative res=ts.
 - * Incentive programs. Rather than clocking hours (which =ncourages "milking the clock"), studies show incentives (rewardi=g goals met early with bonuses instead of raises, a catered "thank yo=" lunch, or maybe a day off or early release if deadlines are m=t early) increase efficiency and productivity, providing more output per d=llar for the company.
 - * Work-Life Balance. Across the b=ard studies show that companies gain more product for their dollar when th=ey encourage/require time off. Persons who consistently work more than 50 h=urs per week accomplish no more than persons who work 35 hours per week. A=direct correlation exists between chronic overtime and an inverse rate of production, most often because that individual begins making more mistakes.=There are anomalies to this rule and we all would like to think we are the person, but they are very rare.

* Work Environment.♦=AOA direct correlation exists between perception of support/happiness in work environment and work performance. When people experience hostility/work-place sadism (satisfaction gained by others' failures), efficiency, productivity, dependability diminishes. Instead of looking behind to our failures, we need to press our eyes forward to how we will contribute and fill =aps to reach the finish line.

* Clarification. In order to improve my role efficiency, an assessment of operations infrastructure would be helpful to me. I need help understanding better what everyone= does so I know how/who to lean on for support. Would be helpful if I could= meet with STC so they can help me understand their role as it relates to =he island. A short paragraph (preliminary to the meeting if elected) of each person's position title and responsibilities as it relates to island=operations would be helpful. Perhaps we can develop some flow charts. If desired I would be happy to conduct a visioning meeting so we can set priorities, goals, deadlines, and see them through.
