Subject: Your Exclusive Invite From Mount Sinai!

Dear Mr. Epstein:

I am following up on the invite below, which you may=have already seen. Our President and CEO, Ken Davis, is hosting a series of private events featuring significant innovations=in health care driven by scientists and physicians at Mount Sinai. These t=rrific panels were originally presented at the Aspen Ideas Festival, and w= are excited to bring them here to New York.

The next event takes place at the Lowes Regency <=>TOMORROW February 6th and will spotlight three extraordinary pedi=tric cases featuring Drs. Sander Florman, Lisa Satlin and Brian Coakley. Check out the sneak peek video below.

I hope you can attend! In the interest of time, feel=free to let me know if you are planning to attend.

Best,

Michelle

This past fall the Mount Sinai Health System<=b> launched a private event series featuring President and CEO Kenneth L. Davis, MD that includes discussions with international thought leaders, renowned scientists, and top physicians across discipline=. Originally presented at the Aspen Ideas Festival, this d=ynamic content will bring you to the front lines of stunning scientific discoveries and provide insights into medical advancements sign=ficant to you, your family, and your community.

We hope you can join us February 6 for the next event in this series.

Beyond the Hospital Bed: New Models of Health Care Delivery

Featuring Jeremy Boal, MD • Niyum Gandhi • Prabhjot Singh, MD, Ph=

Wednesday, March 27, 2019 | 6:30 - 8:00 PM Crosby Street Hotel | [REDACTED] New York City

Our current health care system is bankrupting the nation. =t's time to move toward a new model of health care delivery: one that is not centered on hospital beds and medical villages, =ut extends out into the community with a full network of physicians and me=ical offices. With comprehensive care through an integrated health system,=we can imagine a world of healthy people who never need to set foot in a hospital.
