If i do what u say I will surely become addicted.

Also u don't really mean it rather than first class across oceans do u.

Today we left house at 650 for 8am flight to SF. United flight faster and in some ways more spacious than net jets. Better to spend the 30k on hotel suites, getting cooked for, fancy clothes for Lisa etc.

Will discuss Peking duck

I realize the mental block , my suggestion is a test. just always fly private for one year and then revisit. in tuning most things it usually works to go a little far and then pull back , not the reverse as you are in the springtime of your senility i think the memory part is to your advantage

On rule.

My current rule. Fly private it saves more than an hour relative to commercial for each 4 hours flown or makes schedule 3 hours more convenient or helps earn.

Can't bring myself to just say I always fly private.

Complex relation between menu, meal and memory.
