Plans for Transitioning Housekeeping Staff

1. I understand we are running a business and that you want to transition the entire housekeeping staff.

2. The hesitation you see in me is the consequence of added training and supervision this will require from me since everyone will be inexperienced with your space and preferences. I want to perform well for you in making sure all your needs and requests are met.=C2♦

3. Hiring a cleaning company to get in, do =heir thing, and get out makes the most sense to me. Because we'll be p=ying them for what they accomplish instead of for the hours they're he=e, this will require less supervisory time from me while ensuring the job =ets done in a timely manner.

4. Even with h=r knee troubles, Dulce is by far the most valuable and works hardest of th= four ladies. She carries years of institutional wisdom from which I need =o glean. She knows everything from what kind of t-shirts you prefer to the=exact steps for hurricane preparation. If her knees are fixed, she is othe=wise strong and in good health. Instead of four full-time persons, she cou=d be a solo lead in keeping a hawk's eye on the cleaning company and p=cking up whatever needs occur when they are not here, freeing me to focus =n other things. I can designate Okeam (Kilo - the young man who works very=hard as my right hand person who was helping us in the tunnel) to help her=as needed. This will significantly reduce the staffing needs in housekeepi=g while ensuring a tidy and well-stocked environment.
