I have a different view on all this and my memory is rather clear.

If Terje had a problem I would do all to help him was my view then - and that is to help him with some money for him to get his apartment if needed. If cash was needed.

I said he could finance 50% of it in the bank on its market value and so he did. That (NOK 14 mill) was the size of money it was needed to pay the mortgage bank and that he needed to borrow to get the apartment without any cash. All this If he could not borrow for some reason; I would need to see to help him and all to make sure he could retain his apartment for this family (and there we could need to see what we could do).

This was not needed as the market value was more than 100% above NOK 14 mill and the borrowing from any bank was without any problem.

Is it now the new view that he in addition to borrowing less from the bank he did borrow from you and this I have now have to pay?

Or is it that I have to lend him this money for him to own the apartment and if I can find the money; what type of security do I get and when do I get the money back?

I m sorry to hear of your [REDACTED] truly, the agreement with terje and the option that you suggest "expired" was clear. but that is none of my concern at all. you asked me to contribute 4million kr , and you would pay me back. we shook on it. I have perfect records . perfect I told you in my paris apt that i would not tell terje as this was between you and I . alone. you agreed. again I have perfect records. . " you have my word " . was what you said. I still believe you. . THe reason you do not hear from him , you know all too well .

Regardless of the facts between you and me and I am at a loss to say the least for this discussion.

How I end up owing you any money for allowing Terje to buy the apartment for half price is a mystery to me.

And then I hear that Terje knows nothing about it.

I do not hear from him and thus do not talk to him anymore and that is the price I pay for doing what I did.

Allowing him to buy the apartment at half price.

I am struggling with the payments to the bank as a result of the sale of the same apartment at way below market value.

I am trying to sell assets as best as I can to pay the bank and I am not able to comply.

I am in all kinds of litigation from the bankruptcies,

From all this [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] and I am without earnings/employment.

If you want to come and talk you are welcome and I will [REDACTED] if I am capable to see you.

[REDACTED] from getting your emails and [REDACTED]. I am not travelling anywhere for now anyhow so I am here..
