Good morning,
Are you headed to LSJ thi= morning?
We basically begging a Vendor to complete h=s own work. It makes no sense. Why can't you just finish the project already? This is causing delay's in other Cabana projects

From: Kenny to Anna

Kenny has made many promises o= completion that he has not met.

I do not have fai=h that Kenny will complete this project by Saturday. Even if he does, we st=ll need time to reinstate the plumbing fixtures in the sinks and raise the v=anities and lighting as Kenny's countertops sit higher and the plumbing will=not fit beneath the vanities and lighting now.

He w=s told to have the project finished by last Tuesday. And then this Tuesday.=And however many weeks before that.

I can't really=see much progress after he's been here.

I am not c=nvinced that the completed project, should it actually get finished, will b= up to standard.

If we need cabanas up by the w=ekend, I would suggest we pull the plug on Kenny, reinstall the temporary s=nk counter tops, and get everything clean and functioning ahead of Saturday= then find somebody else.

In fact, I recommend we p=ll the plug on Kenny. Period. He's yet to show us one single finished produ=t in any of the cabanas.
