Subject: Fwd: Principal Care this Weekend

Good morning, Sir,

Looks like Anna is saying the whole weekend so I will defer coffee and muffins to her. If you could like to meet with me while you are here, please let me know. Otherwise I will focus on spending time with my mom as instructed. Thank you.

That's totally great, but I wanted to let you know I'll be here at night and can totally take care of the 5:30 morning coffee and muffin if you'd rather sleep in your own bed. Patrick is happy to supply transport for you as needed. Let us know what works for you. Thank you for doing this.
