Ok,, Frank the pilot mentioned Watson islan=, but that is still closed for Heli ops.
The other is Miami Seaqu=rium, which requires prior approval, which I'm sure we can obtain, h=wever, Uber or Taxi may be challenging at the Seaquarium, compar=d to the Signature arrival, I can have a taxi standing by at Signature, if y=u think that is best?

Thx

Darren found an open field by 1501 Biscayne Blvd, Darren is trying to contact the owner of the property to obtain permission t= land the Heli.
He found the name of the owner on a Dade County Property Appraiser sight, he=was creative, but it's a long shot, If that doesn't work, best to land at Miami Airport FBO Signature Fl=ght support, and Renato pick you up there?
Traffic driving from PBI - Miami at 7am could be rough.
I'll confirm all tomorrow afternoon.

Thx
Larry
