Jeffrey

Attached is the Prebuy quote from AAG which covers all inspection and hourly items come due soon on S=6. I need to speak to Chuck the Maintenance Director at Aetna to confirm exact due dates of these inspections

The float bottles alone are Parts and should be considered Seller's item, cost $57,273.32

Labor for inspections $94,400
Parts $64,755.29

Thx
Larry

Larry – all of these items cannot be done as the pre-buy. It is far far far too large of an inspection scope for this transaction. This was a low priced helicopter that was supposed to be a quick deal. A 650 hour inspection that costs $160 does not represent that. This is not doable. Call me when you land so we can discuss.

Thank you,
