Dear Jeffrey,

I hope you are well!

San Francisco and AI Foundation seem to have been the right decisions. It is an intense and helpful environment. My official start at AIF will depend on the visa and our household is still on the truck for the next ten days, but I already have my desk and start settling in. My closest collaborator is Delip Rao, a very smart and cognitive science inclined buddhist focusing on machine learning and natural language, and we just hired Chris Donahue, who worked at Google's machine learning project for modeling music.

The school has sent the remainder of the tuition bill. Could you please help with that?

Bests, and as always, thank you
