Dear Eric,

Many thanks for your message. As it happens your itinerary looks extremely good, though may I suggest you give some thought to having lunch on Friday at the Kasbah Bab Ourika (see www.kasbahbabourika.com <<http://www.kasbahbabourika.com>>).

It's only a 40 minute drive from the Mamounia, but it will give you a taste of the 'real' Morocco, as the view from the terrace over the Ourika Valley and up to the Atlas is truly spectacular. The only caveat is that if for any reason it's a cloudy day (highly unlikely), then it's not worth doing.

The other suggestion might be to swap the dinner reservation at the Mamounia on Friday to the Royal Mansour at their fabulous restaurant La Grande Table Marocaine and have tea at the Mamounia instead.

My local number in Morocco is . So do feel free to call that at anytime if you need advice on the spur of the moment.

Finally a great friend of mine Sarah Richter who has owned a house in Marrakech compiled a really good website with suggestions which I heartily recommend, see

With best wishes,

Mark

Jeffrey – thank you for the introduction.

Good evening Mark-

We (Myself, my wife, my oldest daughter and her boyfriend) are going to visit our daughter who is currently studying abroad in Barcelona.

Aside from Madrid and Barcelona, we will be visiting Marrakesh for a couple of days (March 7th – 9th) and when I asked Jeffrey about safety, sightseeing, hotels and restaurants, he said Mark Lloyd is “the guy” for all things Marrakesh – only to be followed up by Mark Lloyd “is” Marrakesh!

Below is our itinerary and we would appreciate any insight, tips, suggestions you may share as we desire a safe and memorable experience.
