I have received =uyer's comments to my revisions. They accepted them, and =hen added certain further "clarifications" as =ollows:

In =aragraph 3 relating to the flight credit:

A. They added that the request for =he flight 14 days in advance, must be subject to the reasonable =ailability of the Aircraft. They pointed out that if you need =he aircraft at a particularly busy time, e.g., Super Bowl, and they =lready booked it, they need to be protected.

B. They asked that at the end of =his section to include a line that if they sell the aircraft, the =flight credit won't be a lien or encumbrance on it. I =dded, "provided, however, that, in the even of any such =ale, the proceeds of such sale shall be =irst applied and paid to Seller to pay off the balance of the flight =redit."

C. They added: Buyer or Seller =hall establish an escrow agent for the closing who shall prepare a settlement statement and =rocess the disbursements.

In paragraph 4, relating to closing conditions, they clarified that the cabin light repair is "to include upper and lower LED lighting"

In paragraph 5, relating to the Demo Flight, they clarified that the Demo light is on Sunday, April 7, and returning on Saturday, April 13. They said Larry was aware of this.

In paragraph 7, for the closing date which was originally required to close within 30 days after the contract Deadline (which was a date by which the Purchase Agreement was to be signed within 10 business days after the parties signed the offer). Buyer now wants the closing to take place within 60 days after the Contract Deadline. They don't want to have an issue if their bank takes longer than promised. So they are building in some cushion.

Please advise whether or not to accept these changes. Thank you.
