If ever a star was "born," it was=on the fateful day of April 28, 2010, when a 12-year-old kid from Okl=homa belted out a shiver-inducing cover of Lady Gaga's "Paparazzi" (for a=school talent show) and left a room full of onlookers gasping in awe=2E When the video of the performance was uploaded to YouTube, it bec=me an instant sensation - and soon record biz honchos (including Guy Osea=y) were beating a path to the door of a very young Greyson Chance.

The past nine years have brought a l=t of highs (lasting friendships with superfans Ellen DeGeneres and Gaga h=rself), as well as some lows, with two album releases and the requisi=e touring leaving him with an impressively devoted fanbase. It also made=him the artist he is now, the one who has finally made the record he's=always intended to make. Indeed, portraits was relea=ed this past Friday, and it's the work of a songwriter who has gen=inely found his voice, by learning from some of the very best - from Am= Winehouse to Joni Mitchell, Sylvan Esso to Brandi Carlile...and even=2C lyrically, a little Hermann Hesse.
