Greetings Sir,

The Chromix concrete=colorant for the Road Projects is missing. UPS was scheduled to deli=er to Tropical FL on 3/19, then cancelled. They rescheduled for deli=ery today 3/21 after I and the vendor (Coastal Construction) called yester=ay 3/20. According to UPS tracking, the shipment left their Miami fa=ility this afternoon for the Tropical Shipping Miami warehouse. Acco=ding to Tropical Shipping, the driver arrived, opened the truck and it was=empty.

UPS can trace the shipment from Illinois t= Miami, but do not know where it is currently. They have already opened an=investigation.

I will call in the morning and will keep calling =ntil they locate your shipment.

I notified Mr= Jeffers, who is ready to begin the pouring of the roads.

At this point, I cannot tell you when the Chromix =ill be delivered to LSJ for the project.

Respectf=llly,

Daphne
