Other than the obvious political angle A=osta/Trump, why is 100% of the focus on the federal NPA and not on the =9Clenient" sentence in state court for a guy who you are supposed t= be? Florida has a very very robust victims' rights law allow=ng victims to make submissions and participate at every stage. Did th= victims participate in state court? I know they were given notice of=the final proceeding but what about before that? And whether or not t=ey did, why don't the victims and the press scream about that? = True some pieces speak in general terms about how you got off easy; but it=strikes me as odd or oddly political that the focus is on the NPA (when fed=ral charges would have been much more of a stretch - although that is it a p=int the public picks up on so well).
