Other than the obvious political angle Acosta/Trump, why is 100% o= the focus on the federal NPA and not on the "lenient" sent=nce in state court for a guy who you are supposed to be? Florida has a=very very robust victims' rights law allowing victims to make submi=sions and participate at every stage. Did the victims participate in s=ate court? I know they were given notice of the final proceeding but w=at about before that? And whether or not they did, why don't t=e victims and the press scream about that? True some pieces speak in g=eneral terms about how you got off easy; but it strikes me as odd or oddly p=litical that the focus is on the NPA (when federal charges would have been m=ch more of a stretch - although that is it a point the public picks up on s= well).
