And it is not only Harry. Noam wrote to his two daughters asking them to help and they only said they don't want to get involved -- which is not true. Harry has been consulting with them all the time and all decisions are taken among the three of them.

Me=too. It is outrageously disrespectful to a Father who has done so much for his children.

They seem to want to destroy Noam. =A0

I told Noam I would prefer if he (Noam) would give them all the money in exchange to leave us in peace. But Noam doesn't agree because he says he has given more than enough not only to the children, but also to the grandchildren.

Don't know what to do.
