Max,

I presume it is clear that the recent proposal transmitted by Harry's=lawyer that I should be satisfied with a handout of 100k a year from the Marital Trust =s too disgraceful for comment. I would like to know what further information you require for reimbursement for tax payment. We have previously transmitted a great deal of financial informati=n in order for you to reimburse our taxes, including proof of payment and more. Exactly what more do you require, and with what justification? We see little reason that you cannot act=on the information already provided. As for the claim about concer= for my later years, that has been thoroughly refuted.</=>

Seem= to me I ought to withhold the letter to Harry until we receive a response=from Max, which might influence how to approach Harry.

I've been thinking about it si=ce you wrote. Sitting with Harry will be a waste of time, and unless=you think it's wise, we're hesitant about providing Max with more =nformation, because it's none of his business. I've been thi=king about writing a strong letter to Harry, telling him that of course hi= proposal is outrageous and designed to be unacceptable and that it leaves=us with two options: (1) accepting one of the proposals I sent, preferably=deciding to split the Trust and liquidating it, or (2) letting a Court mak= further decisions. I'd like to leave it up to him to make Court=proceedings inevitable.

=hat do you think?
