male emphasis on 'appreciation'

=/div>
a function of male parental investment

=e wants to be appreciated for his investment in either common children or the woman herself (monogamous)

Chris Rock—why doesn't anyone appreciate the father=as in "dad, thanks for knocking out the rent this month"

female emphasis on 'respect'

=div>

perpetual fear of an imposed subservient role

~30 million years of being the smaller sex in a long lineage wi=h aggression to be respected is to be prote=ted by kin, mate, friends to be dispersed is per =e to be vulnerable

this is my first stab at it
