no waterfall on top. the line will be accented against the background and needs to look very straight<=p>

Hi Jeffrey,

Like the Hermes sofa shown below. We can add a seam to the front of the bottom cushion edge and waterfall the top of the back cushion.

Please keep in mind due to the thickness of the suede and the 1 pc cushion, when the four seams meet in the middle they will create a "lump" since the underside edges of the suede cannot be skived down like leather can.

If you would like the "boxed" look I will explore the option of adding a stitch to the edge of the suede, with no seam. My concern is the suede stretching and the seam moving.

Hi Jeffrey,

Below is our recommended divan styling with the seam=running down the center of the back and bottom cushion as well as the fwd =nd aft ends.

The face of the cushion will be a clean edge, no sea=s.
