I think I charmed them into wanting to work with us but =e're going to discuss amongst ourselves and regroup about the =etails. Moshe and I will go visit again to have another walk around. =he location that they want us to build and that we want to build is =eally only a few meters apart, but we want to built on top of the ridge =nd they want us to build at the bottom. Moshe, "You just =on't build stuff at the bottom of a hill."

We may have to make a =oncession that says that if Tenzin and I both die, they get the =roperty back or something. I think they're worried about us =elling it to someone else who they don't love.

Jonathan Zittrain, my =olleague at Harvard is also one of the best law professors and teaches =orts. ;-) Anyway, he's also working with us and will help in =trying to craft something that makes sense for us as well as for =hem.

I assume =ou don't mind what happens to the place 30-50 years from now =ight?

It is =oing to be a really beautiful building in a beautiful place if we sort =his out.

Assume=you're still "in"?
