Excellent article !

Co=gratulations !!!!

Looking forward to our meeting

I =isagree with Neil De Grasse Tyson

Science is not "truth"!

It=s a method of human inquiry that yields testable results that are useful f=r creating technology and even help cure a small percentage of chronic ill=esses .

That is only " truth " if any is the consciousness in which science is = particular system of thought. No system of thought - science philosophy ,=theology or religion gives us access to reality or truth . Only going to the source of thought itself can we get a clue to=the nature of existence .

Science cannot teach me to love, have compassion, joy, equanimity or show me the meaning or why of existence.

I'm conversing / debating Shermer again in last week of September in NYC . Ty=on etc will be there . Would love to have you join .
