Subject: My view of the situation

The three children believe that all Noam's money,=not only from the marital Trust, but also from the IRAs belongs to them, b=cause it was made when Noam was married to their mother.

</=iv>

But not only from the time their marriage lasted, b=cause after Noam and his second wife had been married, Harry once flew fro= California to complain that royalties even of a new book that Noam wrote =fter being married to his second wife should NOT come to the second wife).=C2 And the book publication was delayed and all sorts of legal difficul=ies and pressure from Max to have the book only under Noam's name -- w=th Deborah's endorsement, until Gene Landy stood up in the case.

=div>

Therefore, in their minds, all the money should be inhe=ited by them.

In the will that Max pr=posed, the second wife would receive $25,000, and even the remaining money=from bank accounts should go to the Noam Chomsky Revocable Trust. At=the time the bank account was being used only as an account for making pay=ents. So it had only the exact amount for payments.

At the time, before Noam and his second wife sold the apartment in Cambr=dge (that was bought after Noam and his second wife had been married -- bt= that it was not allowed by Max to be bought jointly in Noam's and his=second wife's name) and all the tangible assets including, sheets, pil=owcases, glasses, silverware, books, objects, rugs, furniture and all its =content, as Max wrote, would also go to the NCRT. Therefore, includin= things that Noam and his second wife had acquired together.

The document stated that then all tangible assets would be sold=and the money would be reverted to the NC Revocable Trust, that would have=become at that point irrevocable. The NC Revocable Trust has the three chi=dren as its beneficiaries.

Harry was nominated tr=stee of the marital trust. He now controls the other trustee, Max.</=iv>

The IRA has been the main source of income and Noam=#39;s children want it to be the only source of income, preserving the mar=tal trust intact for themselves.

After Noam=realized that the gifts to his children and payments of their expenses fro= the IRA, plus our own expenses were depleting the IRA in taxes that are b=ing paid also from the IRA, he stopped the gifts to 10 family members. =AO

The idea is that Noam uses only the IRA fo= all expenses and taxes, since Noam designated one of the IRAs as the inhe=itance to his second wife. Interestingly they want to make sure that=there are no current gifts to the second wife. Maybe because they wa=t to be able to contest the will, saying that they -- Noam's children =- were excluded from Noam's inheritance. The only reason I can s=e why they would care if there are gifts being made to the second wife is =hat this would diminish their portion in the inheritance that they can cla=m from the IRA. Otherwise, what difference would it make if the second wife receives it now or later? And a possible claim for the =RA is the same reason to control our expenses, requesting financial information.

The main purpose of all this is to collect =oam's and his second wife's financial information to construct their own stories/cases. Therefore, if even Noam provides all the financial information, they won't release more money from the marital trust than what they have already decided, and this, only if the conditions they established, such as signing releases for them for their wrongdoing will be satisfied.

The whole thing is about having control of our lives and see how much we spend in the market and be able to denounce that we are spending too much here or there and that we are not living according to the "family's standards" and that they have to intervene.

Crazy!

the gifts to third parties are a reference to Valeria AGAIN!!! . he should not be allowed to step away . and abdicate his past or present responsibilities. =A0 you need to send a strong response. . =A0 You are trustee and have been for many years. I believe that trying to avoid fulfilling those responsibilities by delay , and repeated questions re gifts , which we have answered a number of times =A0 is unacceptable. . there is over 2 million dollars in the trust .so pretending that the concern is for my future , is clearly untrue. =C2 having the trust income payouts being less than 10k per year as you and Harry have paid expenses to which I was never consulted is outrageous ,

Noam –

Thank you for your reply. As you indicate that you are not being represented by counsel I will reply directly to you, with a copy to Rich (as you suggest). Please consider:

1. As you know, Harry's attorney has commenced a legal action that is intended to facilitate my resignation and the appointment of a successor trustee to take my place. Since you've wanted me removed for some time and since I've said (from the first time you and I met) that I only wanted to serve as trustee if all the family members wanted me to serve= I'm looking forward to resigning as soon as the court determines how I am to do so and how my successor is to be selected.

3. To the extent that you want to push forward while I remain the trustee, let me again state the basis for financial disclosure by you. It is that, as trustee, I owe a duty to you and I owe a duty to your children (as the remainder beneficiaries of the trusts). For the present my primary duty is to you and it is to distribute to you all income earned by the trusts= net of expenses, and to distribute to you (or pay on your behalf) additional monies as reasonably needed to the extent that your income from other sources is not sufficient to support your reasonable expenses. Notwithstanding your statement that "As for the claim about concern for my later years, that has been thoroughly refuted" it has not been refuted in the context of my trusteeship and it remains my=duty to consider distributions in light of the possibility that you will have a reasonable need for distributions from the trust for many more years,=and perhaps in increasing amounts, depending on your circumstances in the future.

5. As for the specifics of disclosure, what I need to consider is (a) what your income was in 2017, since that was the basis=for the tax payments you seek to have reimbursed, (b) what your income is likely to be this year and going forward, (c) what your expenses were in 2017 and are likely to be in 2018, and (d) whether any of your income (or other resources) are being used for purposes that the trust cannot support (such as gifts to third parties). So far, Rich has provided me with some rough information about your 2017 expenses. There=are some gaps in that information, but nothing that can't be cleared up pretty easily (I think). Rich has also assured me that you have not made any gifts that have diminished your resources and I assume you would confirm that to me. What I don't have at this point is enough information about your income, so that I can consider what the gap is between your expenses and your=income, which is the gap the trusts might help to close up. With respect to your income in 2017, all I can see is that your income tax obligations seem to be much higher than they were previously. I'm assuming that reflects a jump in income from (i)=the profit made on the sale of the condominium, and (ii) large withdrawals=from your IRA. If you want to provide me with more information (bearing in mind what I noted in item #3, above) then information about your 2017 income and what your income is likely to be this year is what I most need.

I hope this is helpful and will wait to hear more from you and/or Rich.

Thanks for your message and your inquiry. =A0 I would like to reply in some detail, but before I do so please tell me whether you are now represented by legal counsel. =f you are then I believe I'm obliged to copy your counsel on our e=changes. I would also plan on copying Rich Kahn, since my last commu=ications about distributions to you from the trusts have been with him.

Max,

I presume it is clear that the recent proposal transmitted by Harry's lawyer that I should be satisfied with a handout of 100k a year from the Marital Trust is too disgraceful for comment. I would like to know what further information you require for reimbursement for tax payment. We have previously transmitted a great deal of financial information in order for you to reimburse our taxes, including proof of payment and more. Exactly what more do you require, and with what justification? We see little reason that you cannot act on the information already provided. As for the claim about concern for my later years, that has been thoroughly refuted.
