I disagree with Neil De=Grasse Tyson

Science is not " t=uth " !

It's a method of hu=an inquiry that yields testable results that are useful for creating techn=logy and even help cure a small percentage of chronic illnesses .

The only " truth &=uot; if any is the consciousness in which science is a particular system o= thought. No system of thought - science philosophy , theology or religion=gives us access to reality or truth . Only going to the source of thought itself can we get a clue to the nature of existence .

Science cannot teach me=to love , have compassion , joy , equanimity or show me the meaning or why=of existence .

I'm conversing / de=ating Shermer again in last week of September in NYC . Tyson etc will be t=ere . Would love to have you join .
