There is a 'very likely' threat of terror-in the nation, according to the FCO.

It said: "The Moroccan authorities have warned of an increased threat=20 linked to the growing number of Moroccans sympathetic or belonging to Daesh (formerly referred to as ISIL) and other extremist groups, and regularly report the disruption of terrorist cells, some of which have intended to carry out attacks in Morocco against government installations, public spaces and tourist sites.

"You should be v=gilant at all times
