FYI.

The school's in the news with an accusation against GP Dunnan of sexual abuse of a live-in au pair -- and irregularly admitted Dalton student 14 year old female in 1986. He lost his job in 1987 after revelation of an adulterous affair with a married and very adult teacher, and the ex-wife of his I actually met was substantially older than he when he took his job at Dalton in the 1970s.

Even in sensationalistic articles, the um lifting needed to make this a file-able suit raises immediate doubts in my mind.

=m good. I am really excited about working again for a company that is on track to make the first tunable, powerful (in emitted power), scalable room-temperature terahertz source/laser. Plus, I'm dating again. And: last night in SF I attended a quirky cool event that started in NYC: the Poetry Brothel. Yup, just what you think happened, happened. I was a john for a poetess. But I'm not a listen and tell kind of guy about what happened.
