Faith when I last spoke with your advisor I asked him to send me=his contact information so we could collectively get on the phone with Chr=s and work through some of this analysis.

I have not received his contact information. We are aligned in findin= a solution but I think it will take a bit more "meeting if the minds=quot; on value.

Please have him (I think he said his name was Jeffrey) send me his co=tact information and we can move this process along.

All the best,

Neale

Neale, our advisor at your request spoke to=Chris Lawler, Chris requested questions in writing as he said he was not v=ry familiar with the detailed numbers. We have reviewed limited number of =he past k-1's, and financial statements.

Taking into account that there are still </=pan>

Some liabilities outstanding ie:Paris lawsu=t, possible class action certification etc. and to short circuit a long nu=ber crunching and possibly futile exercise Joel and I suggest the followin=:

We will buy you out at a total price of 6 m=llion dollars paid over three years, or in the alternative we can pay 5 mi=lion cash at closing. We are told that if phantom income was booked by the=fund you would recover the benefit of the higher basis(ie:larger capital loss) upon sale. We will part as fri=nds and release you from all future claims. We thank you for the acknowled=ement that you have not had the time to be constructive partners, and hope=that our offer meets your needs.

Sincerely,

Faith & Joel
