Hi Larry,

I spoke to Cleo. The person who parked the plane in front of the hanger has=nothing to do with Cleo. Cleo said that he believes it's a mechanic by the=name of "Pompo" (sp?). Cleo is going to call his mechanic to see if he has=a contact number for this Pompo person. He also said that Roy knows him.

Re the automobile parking situation, Cleo said that people have been parking=all over the place since construction has begun.

With warm regards,

Cecile

Can we install some chain link and some poles to "mark" my car parking stree= side by hanger?
Someone has blocked the entrance to the hanger, I can't get the suburban out=

Plus Cleo's buddies parked in an airplane in front of our hanger door, I'm g=ad I don't have the helicopter here if there was an emergency!
