Hi Jeffrey,

I hope you're =ell and doing fun, interesting things. I am going to Quebec for a few week= to study French. I hope I don't pick up the Quebecois accent. Anywa=, I would have preferred to go to the French Alps but maybe next yea= when I retire. Instead I spent most of July dealing with a lazer procedur= (one eye each week) to correct the angle of my irises in order to a=low the aqueous fluid to drain properly from my eyeballs. The procedure we=t well, and I am very grateful that the doctor had been monitoring my eyes=over the last few years and prevented me from getting glaucoma. Anyway, if=you do come back to the States, I won't be in NY to go with you to Erik's =how before it closes. My favorite painting is the big, blue triangular one=in the photo, so if you go, you'll have to let me know, if you agree.

Before I leave, I'd like to ask if you know any=ody or anything regarding renting studio spaces for artists? Erik's curren= lease in Harlem expires in September and he needs to move because the ren= is too high. Although I think he is a very talented artist, he doesn't ha=e business experience or a mentor when it comes to the business aspects of=being an artist. It's frustrating as a mother, not to be able to giv= helpful advice but I am equally ignorant in this area. Are there real est=te agents, accountants, or financial planners who specialize in this field= Do you know any real estate brokers to refer him to for advice or to help=him find a new space?

I apologize for alwa=s turning to you in times of need, but you are one of two smart friends wh=se opinions I trust and respect. My other friend, Drusilla, whom I also lo=e, is very smart but in a totally different way. If you get my drift!=

Love,

Kathy
