Hi Jef=rey,

I hope you're well and doing f=n, interesting things. I am going to Quebec for a few weeks to study French=. I hope I don't pick up the Quebecois accent. Anyway, I w=uld have preferred to go to the French Alps but maybe next year when I ret=re. Instead I spent most of July dealing with a lazer procedure (one eye e=ch week) to correct the angle of my irises in order to allow the aqu=ous fluid to drain properly from my eyeballs. The procedure went well, and=I am very grateful that the doctor had been monitoring my eyes over the la=f few years and prevented me from getting glaucoma. Anyway, if you do come=back to the States, I won't be in NY to go with you to Erik's show=before it closes. My favorite painting is the big, blue triangular one in =he photo, so if you go, you'll have to let me know, if you agree.

Before I leave, I'd like to ask if=you know anybody or anything regarding renting studio spaces for artists? =rik's current lease in Harlem expires in September and he needs to mov= because the rent is too high. Although I think he is a very talented arti=t, he doesn't have business experience or a mentor when it comes to th= business aspects of being an artist. It's frustrating as a moth=r, not to be able to give helpful advice but I am equally ignorant in this=area. Are there real estate agents, accountants, or financial planners who=specialize in this field? Do you know any real estate brokers to refer him=to for advice or to help him find a new space?

I apologize for always turning to you in times of need, but y=u are one of two smart friends whose opinions I trust and respect. My othe= friend, Drusilla, whom I also love, is very smart but in a totally differ=nt way. If you get my drift!

Love=

Kathy
