i am aware that i am not simple. and i appreciate yo=r working with me, the end product will be great however =A0 the coffee and ovens were discussed DAY 1 in APRIL a= were the doors. for example. . i agree on the div=n fabric mess, my fault entirely. i need dates t=at are needed to complete ALL the work I have asked for . and =s soon as possible please.

Jeffrey,

I will revise pricing where required a=d include the couple of items that do not have pricing.

I agree – we have “tal=ed” or “discussed” a ton of ideas for this aircraf=. Furthermore, the back and forth gyrations for decision making has =orn me down. I very much want to make you happy, but your killing me. We are doing =he very best we can to include an expanded work scope and more than we ori=inally agreed to (which I have illustrated in the past few e-mails).

As a means to prove just one point (AN= NOT TO BE ARGUMENTATIVE), deciding to change your decision for the materi=l on the two 16g divans at this point would be a complete show stopper anywhere else.

Many of these items are not simply jus= recovering what is there – they require engineering and certifica=ion.

Lastly, with regard to the removal of =he overn and coffee maker in the aft L/H galley, removing them is relative=y simple; it’s the close outs, adjustable shelving, engineering and certification that takes time.

Eric

thnks but not acceptable. =A0 the oven and coffee for example have been required , and ne=er changed since APRIL . you didnt provide a written lis= , though one has been promised for 5 weeks, . but that omission doe= not relieve you of the obligation to do it. sorry, also it is not ac=eptable for there not to be prices attached and dates in which they =n fact can be performed for example forward tables. which has also b=en discussed .

Jeffrey,

Attached is the list we spoke of yesterday that identifies what we can and can not accommodate.

I will check on Monday morning with Eileen to see what she can do regarding "photoshopping" the d=van fabrics.

As noted in my e-mail yesterday, I believe that sample 3 chenille will look beautiful against the leather arms and lower base. Adding welting may be a good idea to add another level of detail if you like.

Best Regards,

Eric
