Sounds good. But before writing to them, I'd like to respond to Max's letter -- I assume they are all communicating.

Max's approach is to respond very judiciously to (appropriately) angry letters, perhaps having in mind future litigation. I think, therefore, that I should respond to him in the same style, just putting material quietly on the record. I'll send you a proposed response to Max in a moment to see what you think.

how about, =A0 to max harry and his attny, =. In order to avoid a potentially ugly litigation. I thought I would propose an alternative that incorporates your suggestion. =A0 As over the year I have heard repeatedly that this is not about taking money that was designated for me, but out of concern that I would have enough money into my later years. I proposed the following. I will accept the proposal for the [REDACTED]
