Dear Jeffrey,

We have completed a rough cut the episode featur=ng my conversation with Woody on "This is just to say" by Willia= Carlos Williams.

=he episode now includes 2 poets, an historian and five couples and a lot o= archival footage and music. It's warm and textured and funny an= it teaches a lot, too.

Our executive producer at WGBH loves the episode, =nd I really like it too. (It is better, by the way, for your sugges=ions/critique of my performance). Thank you.

The one primary element that is missing from the=episode is a full reading of the poem from Woody.

We don't need video--ju=t a good audio file of him reading the poem a few times. If Woody would re=ord three readings of it in his studio, that would help me so much. The =C2♦poem is around 50 words long, he could do a few readings in a minute =r two.

<=r>

Would you h=lp with the ask?

Lisa
