The only way I can see to prevent any action after I die is to make ironclad legal conditions. Anything more?

OK. ♦=A0 How's this:

I am not represented on this issue, so you can send the information to me directly, copying Richard Kahn

This seems to me too harsh, at least for my style. How about if I write to Max that he can send me the information I requested and copy to Richard Kahn. Nothing else is needed.

If he refuses, we can move on to what you suggest.

Thanks for your message a=d your inquiry. I would like to reply in some detail, but before I d= so please tell me whether you are now represented by legal counsel. If you are then I believe I'm obliged to copy your =counsel on our exchanges. I would also plan on copying Rich Kahn, sin=e my last communications about distributions to you from the trusts have b=en with him.

Please also bear in mind =hat since (according to Rich) you are preparing to bring a legal action ag=inst me, I have been in contact with my firm's malpractice insurance carrier. As my exchanges with you may also need to be revi=wed with our carrier that may delay (and/or limit) my responses.=/u>

I presume it is clear that the recent proposal transmitted by Harry's lawyer that I should be satisfied with a handout of 100k a year from the Marital Trust is too disgraceful for comment. I would like to know what further information you require for reimbursement for tax payment. We have previously transmitted a great deal of financial information in order for you to reimburse our taxes, including proof of payment and more. Exactly what more do you require, and with what justification? We see little reason that you cannot act on the information already provided. As for the claim about concern for my later years, that has been thoroughly refuted.
