You sit next to him and you teach him how to drive by turning the steering wheel if he goes off track and=pulling the break if you need to (you can't do that through a phone or by email).

What you have done after giving the car to the kid is kicking him out after he drove too fast leaving him alone with no car in the middle of the highway saying "I wish you well" knowing he is going to die hit by another car.

End of the story: the kid is obviously happy and grateful he received a car as a gift because without it he couldn't have driven until where he is now. However he cannot continue the journey stranded on a highway.
