Unfortunately not. My colleagues followed up and heard nothing back so that has sadly fallen through. If Mr. Epstein would like to sell the desk, we can reoffer it at a reduced estimate in our October sale which will be our best sale in the fall for European furniture or we could wait a bit and sell it in the next appropriate sale in 2018. If we did reoffer it, ideally the estimate would be $80,000-120,000 so that it had the strongest chance of selling. I know this is a drop so I do understand if Mr. Epstein would prefer to have the desk collected.

Let me know your thoughts and I am happy to discuss this or answer any questions or concerns.

I am unfortunately out in Westchester on an appraisal today. Can I call you from the train when I'm on my way back? I'm at the clients now and may have time at lunch to speak briefly so will try then if I can.
